

Expedia Group extends its 2015 waiver of certain rate, conditions and availability parity clauses with European hotel partners

31 July 2020 – Expedia Group today notifies that it will continue to apply its waiver of certain rate, conditions and availability parity clauses in its agreements with its European hotel partners which was originally implemented by the Expedia Group on 1 August 2015.

Expedia Group's decision will allow Expedia to continue to focus with hotel partners on jointly delivering choice and value to travellers looking for compelling accommodation deals.

To the extent that regulatory or legislative developments may in the future cut across Expedia Group's continuation of this commercial policy, Expedia Group naturally reserves the right to adjust its approach as appropriate.
